

Languages of Brazil Day

Date: Wednesday 2nd of May, 9:15-11:30 and 13:00-15:10

Venue: Jens Chr. Skous Vej 4, Building 1481-239

Organised by:

Linguistics Program, Dept. of Linguistics, Cognitive Science and Semiotics
Brazilian Studies Program, Global Studies Dept.

Program

9.15 Coffee

9.30-9.50 Welcome and Introduction

Ana Paulla Braga Mattos, Aarhus Universitet

9.50-10.40 How Brazilian Portuguese emerged

Volker Noll, Universität Münster

10.40-11.30 Indigenous Languages in Brazil

Peter Bakker, Aarhus Universitet

11.30 Lunch break

13.00-13.50 Brazilian Portuguese: the political path to a 'monolingual' country

Fernanda Ziober, Vrije Universitet Amsterdam

13.50-14.40 The making of an online corpus-driven dictionary of Portuguese for university students: matters of design

Tanara Zingano Kuhn, Centre for General and Applied Linguistics Studies, University of Coimbra

14.40-15.10 Standardized and vernacular varieties in Brazil

Stine Poulsen, Aarhus Universitet

In case of questions please contact:

Ana Paulla Braga Mattos (mattos@cc.au.dk) – PhD Fellow at Linguistics, AU

Camila Dilli (camila.dilli@cas.au.dk) – Brazilian Lecturer in Aarhus, Global Studies, AU

SCHOOL OF
CULTURE AND SOCIETY
AARHUS UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF
COMMUNICATION AND CULTURE
AARHUS UNIVERSITY