

Brazil Week 2023

Hosted by the Brazilian Studies Program at the Department of Global Studies, Aarhus University

17 April

Opening of the Brazil Week 2023: Danish-Brazilian Relations: past, present and future

Venue: Aarhus University, Nobelparken, Room 1461-516

17:15 h – 19:00 h

With contributions by Carlos Moscardo (Deputy Head of Mission, Embassy of Brazil), Melanie Germain Rosendahl (Vestas) and Georg Fischer (Brazilian Studies, AU)

Facilitators: Ana Paulla Braga Mattos, Derek Pardue

19:00 h – Reception with light drinks and snacks

18 April

EXPO art E BRASIL - Contemporary Brazilian Art Exhibition

With works by Pedro Varela, Katharina Welper, Carol Ponte, Mariana Gil, Cissa Borges, Dada Fidget Toy Orchestra, Jarbas Lopes

Venue: Vestergade 49, Aarhus C (Galleri TESE)

17:00 h – Presentation & welcome drink

17:30 – 20:00 h Performances by VHS Fabrikken, Sandro Masai, Ana Luiza Ulsig

19 April

Being a female Indigenous community leader in Brazil: A conversation with Marli Lopes da Silva Kaxinawa (via Zoom)

Venue: Aarhus University, Nobelparken, Room 1483-444

12:15 h – 14:00 h

Portuguese with consecutive translation into English

For online participation contact mattos@cas.au.dk

20 April

Cineclube brasileiro

Venue: Vestergade 49, Aarhus C (Galleri TESE)

19:30 h – Fala Tu / Lives of Rhyme (Documentary, Guilherme Coelho, Brazil 2003), with comments by Derek Pardue

21/4

Excursion to Copenhagen with students of the Brazilian Studies Program (internal event)

AARHUS UNIVERSITY