

“CONTROVERSIES WITHIN THE STUDY OF PLAGUE”

ATTEND THIS SEMINAR BY PROFESSOR SAMUEL COHN
ON THE 5TH OF MAY AT
MOESGÅRD HERREGÅRD,
BUILDING 4206-139.

Hear the esteemed Professor Samuel Cohn in his talk on the controversies within the study of plague.

In this time of pandemics – and the resulting research on the topic – the talk will provide a framework to understand the potentials and problems that studying the plagues entails.

Samuel Cohn will take us through his interdisciplinary approach, as he collaborates with a number of different disciplines, all with the same goal: understanding the plagues of the past.

This small seminar will feature a brief introduction, followed by the talk of Samuel Cohn, after which there will be ample time for questions and discussion. There will be snacks and drinks after the seminar, to facilitate further discussion. Registrations are not required for the entire lecture.

The seminar is held in collaboration with Center for Vikingetid og Middelalder (CVM), MCH Programmet and Ottar.

Program for the seminar:

- 15.15, the seminar starts (building 4206-139)
- 15.15-15.30, introduction by Marcello about the history of research on diseases in Denmark.
- 15.30-16.30 lecture by Samuel Cohn and questions.
- 16.30 the seminar ends.
- Reception.

Do you have any questions? Contact Johan Sandvang Larsen at jslarsen@cas.au.dk.

SCHOOL OF
CULTURE AND SOCIETY
AARHUS UNIVERSITY