

ECLC LECTURE SERIES

FALL 2026

‘THINGS CHINESE’

What Objects can tell us about China's Past and Present

October 15th
12:00 CET
18:00 CST

Prof. Roland Altenburger
(University of Würzburg)

A Decorated Liquor-
Warmer Pewter from the Late Qing: Sociability, Literary Games, and the Everyday-Life Significance of the Red Chamber Dream

October 22nd
12:00 CET
18:00 CST

Dr. Xiang Wei (Tsinghua University)

From Chang'an to Nara:
The Influence of Tang
Culture on Japan

October 29th
12:00 CET
19:00 CST

Li Peiwei (PKU/University of Tokyo)

Why Go to the Mountains:
Landscape, Reclusion, and Freedom in Chinese Thought

November 5th
12:00 CET
19:00 CST

Prof. Andreas Steen (Aarhus University)

Sonic Objects from the Late Qing: Records and the Infinite Circulation of Sound

November 12th
12:00 CET
19:00 CST

Jun.-Prof. Emily Graf
(University of Tübingen)

„A “Bronze Woman” among “Bronze Men”: Random
Notes on Thinking about the Body in Medical Museums in China“

Join online via Zoom ➔

or physically at the School of International Studies at Peking University

Partner Institutions

UNIVERSITY OF OSLO

EBERHARD KARLS UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UNIVERSITÄT
WÜRZBURG

